CE'CILE (Jamaic Ja

maican diva Ce'Cile, dancehall's original 'Bad Gyal', is a deadly combination of talent, wit and sex appeal. Although dancehall is a male-dominated sphere, Ce'Cile is expressing herself as a bold, strong and brutally honest female in her lyrics and subject matter. She does, however, not forget her roots and also delivers on a number of groovy roots reggae and lover's rock tracks. Ce'Cile regularly tours the Caribbean, USA and Europe and has collaborated with a huge range of artists such as South Rakkas Crew, Stanton Warriors, Shaggy, Timberland, Beenie Man, Sean Paul and Lady Saw to name a few. Ce'Cile will rock your world with her hits "Hot Like We', 'Take My Heart', 'When You're Gone', 'I'm Waiting', 'Do It To Me' and many others.
